January 28, 1935 - March 29, 2022

Adams, John Glaseman Jr., died March 29, 2022. Born January 28, 1935 in Richmond, VA, he was predeceased by his father, John G. Adams, Sr., a former pitcher for the NY Giants and Minnie G. Adams. He is survived by his wife of 57 years, Marcia S. Adams, whom he said was the love of his life; two children, Michelle A. Moscardini (Andrew) of Tampa, FL and John G. Adams, III (fiancé Katrin) of Richmond, VA. As an avid animal lover, he also leaves behind his cat, Allie and two granddogs, Fenway and Sammie, and many other predeceased cats and dogs.

After early retirement from Otis Elevator, John owned his own construction company for many years. After his second retirement, he did some maintenance work for Henrico Healthcare and other odd handyman jobs. He had a true passion for building things.

John was a devoted husband and father who loved the Chesapeake Bay and made countless friends over his lifetime. He wanted to give a special thanks to his best friends Chuck, Robert, Cleveland, Earl, Jim, Allen and the late, C.L.
