

Joseph L. Cannaday Sr.

August 12, 1938 - August 7, 2022

Joseph L. Cannaday, Sr., set sail on his latest, grandest journey on August 7, 2022, just shy of his 84th birthday, surrounded by family and loved ones.

A faithful servant of Jesus Christ, Joe loved hunting, fishing, country music, and westerns. A man of innumerable hobbies, Joe was a tinkerer, a master recycler (ahead of his time), and a collector of ...anything: Old farm equipment, scrap metal, and books barely scratched the surface of his impressive list of sought-after treasures. There was no automobile, tractor, or large truck engine Joe could not rebuild and restore to full function. He built the house his children grew up in. First and foremost, Joe was a dad. He adored his family. His children thought he was superhuman.

Preceded in death by his wife Oletha Cannaday, mother Annie Brown, and brother Henry Chandler, Jr., Joe leaves behind: son Joseph Cannaday, Jr. (Christine Cannaday); daughter Lori Butler (Ronald Butler, Jr.); granddaughter Katherine Stronge (Kelvin Stronge); great-grandsons Everett, Henry, and Willem Stronge; brothers Frank Brown, Jr. (Elizabeth Brown) and Alfred Brown (Doris Brown); longtime friend Marie (Cookie) Alvis, and countless other loving family members and friends.

A celebration of Joe Cannaday's life will be held on Monday, August 15, 2022, at 11:00 a.m. (family visitation at 10:00 a.m.) at Vincent Funeral Home, 9923

Pocahontas Trail, Providence Forge, VA 23140. In lieu of flowers, consider donating to VCU's Massey Cancer Center (masseycancercenter.org).

Cemetery Details

Hollywood Cemetery

412 South Cherry St.
Richmond, VA 23220

Previous Events

Celebration

AUG 15. 11:00 AM (ET)

Vincent Funeral Home, Providence Forge Chapel
9923 Pocahontas Trail
Providence Forge, VA 23140
(804) 966-7075