“ So sorry to hear about Joe. He always lit up the marina with his smile. He will be sorely missed but I'm sure he and Jim are sharing a beverage in heaven as they reminisce about the wonderful times we shared.

What a wonderful, kind, and personable man. A world with out Joe and his infectious laugh is truly a lonelier place. The consummate salesman--I wanted to buy whatever he sold--especially his love of life. Thank you Joe for being honest, loyal, interested and compassionate. Rest in peace. You did well.....

“ So sorry to my cousins Cindy, Suzi, and Amy and to Uncle Joe's entire family. Great memories of he and my Dad enjoying Jazz and comedy albums on the record player probably 45 years ago. Sympathy.

Cousin Tom

Thank you cousin Tommy for your kind words. Love the memories of our Dads listening to jazz records and the funny guys of the day. To this day, Dad still has Seriously Sinatra programmed on Sirius in the car. Of course none of this redeems us for the yodel incident. Sorry Ro. With love, Cyndi, Suzi, Amy.
