“ Sorry to hear of Joe's passing. He kindly messaged me on Facebook last summer after he read of my husband's passing. He didn't recognize my husband's name but realized who I was after seeing mom, daddy's and Ray's name as having predeceased him. It meant a lot to me that he took the time to message me. Please know that I will be remembering all of you in prayer as you mourn his passing. God bless you. Cheryl Brooke Haynes

It was with great sorrow that I learned of Joe's passing. Growing up, he was one I always looked up to. He was truly a legend to all of those who knew him. A few years ago I had the occasion to visit with him in his home. It had been many years since I had last seen him. We did a lot of catching up that day. Joe served his country with honor and was wounded off the coast of Vietnam. While visiting that day, we swapped "war stories" and when we talked about his Purple Heart, he got up and went into another room, returning with a vile that held the shrapnel that he had been hit with. I have countless memories of Joe and his family. It is hard to accept that he has left us, for he was larger than life, one who will be missed and remembered by those who had the good fortune to have known him. My heart felt condolences and prayers go out to Melvin and the rest of the family.

“ Deepest condolences to the family. I had the privilege of working with Joe at the Center for several years before his retirement. His commitment to make the Center always appear pristine was a testament to his character. I had the pleasure of traveling to Nashville with him once for a conference. I do know he had a little anxiety about flying and had to "coax" him a bit on the return flight. But after arriving back in Richmond and we both stepped out of the terminal and looked at the sky and sensed snow, we both looked at each other and said "See you in a few hours". Joe's attention to the Center and making sure it was always ready for the employees the next day was unsurpassed by all others. A great man indeed.
