“ To the family of Joe Murray. My husband meet Joe for the first time at the New Kent Refuse site where he worked when we moved to Providence Forge in 2004.

Wade (Harrell) always came home from that site with some story Joe had told him.

From what my husband said he was a very good story teller.

Then, that first Thanksgiving was nearing and Joe arrived at our place on Olivet Church Rd. with this very large sack of greens.

Joe was a little concerned about how I would cook these, as being from the North I had never cooked collards. So Joe explained to me, Maggie Harrell, how it should be done.

We very much appreciated those greens but much more than that, we enjoyed Joe's kindness as he took the time to be a friendly thoughtful neighbor.

We always wave when he would drive by and I know now will very much miss see him drive this road again!

With Deepest Sympathy to Joe's family & friends & neighbors!
