

Joseph Ray Wooten

March 23, 1946 - January 7, 2014

Joseph Ray Wooten, 67, of King William, VA passed away January 7, 2013. Joe worked at Busch Gardens for the last 13 years, making many friends and teaching the young guys how things were done "old school." Before Busch Gardens he worked repairing saw mills and served in the Army when he turned 18.

Joe was a very hard worker all his life and enjoyed all he did. He was a loving husband, father and grandfather. He truly loved each and every one of them and will be truly missed.

He was preceded in death by his mother, Edna Stone, a sister Sheila Mazingo, a brother Edward Wooten, a son Gordon Wooten and his late wife, Frances. .

He is survived by his wife of 24 years, Arlene; his children and their spouses, Anita and Troy Jordan, Angela and Charles Etling, Ron and Missy Jordan; a sister, Sandra Morataya; and his beloved grandchildren, Bryan, Todd, Travis, Austin, Chris, Charlie (Stephanie); great-granddaughter, Pamela; and many other cousins, nieces, nephews. And of course his beloved dog Sandy.

A funeral service will be held 2 p.m. Sunday, January 12th at Vincent Funeral Home, 417 11th Street, West Point, VA 23181. The family will receive friends an hour prior to the service at the funeral home. Burial will follow in St. James Presbyterian Church, 411 Courthouse Road, King William, VA 23086.

Memorials may be made to West Point Volunteer Fire Department & Rescue Squad, Inc., PO Box X, West Point, VA 23181 or St. James Presbyterian Church..
