Thank you. It was such a surprise for Mom to beat Dad to heaven's door. We were preparing for his decline due to Alzheimer's and her brain hemorrhage and stroke on Monday came so very quickly.

“Joy was always a delight to be around and with. I enjoyed her company many times for different events she was a hard worker and we shared lots laughs. She was a great cook and worked hard preserving the labor of there garden. I have missed her but know she was taking care of Pete and now she is enjoying the kingdom forever. Greatly missed by many. Love, Irene Crump”

Thank you, Irene. Your words are spot on! Mom always put Dad first and that big ol' garden he tended was a huge part of summertime.

“ Joy was one of the first members of Corinth to make me welcome when I first started to serve as organist in the fall of 1965. She was such a sweet gentle soul. Later, in the mid-70's when I worked in providence Forge we would meet almost daily to share our lunchtime. A lifetime of shared events at Corinth and in the community are too numerous to mention. You could always count on Joy for church homecomings to provide a feast. Homebound for the last number of years because of Pete's declining health and her own, she still remained active in providing crocheted items for our Shoeboxes and lap robes for the Veterans. Our thoughts and prayers are with her family.

You could always count on Joy—an appropriate epitaph for Mom. Thank you, Jeannette.

Joy will certainly be missed. I so enjoyed visiting with her and Pete and talking with them. She loved to craft, and more than once she brought me yarn, craft patterns, and books that she no longer used or needed. One of my favorite memories of Joy was the year she opened her kitchen to the ladies of Corinth for two days while we made fresh strawberry pies as a fundraiser for Corinth. The berries were freshly picked at Linda and Tommy's berry patch right across the street and were rushed to the kitchen for the ladies to prepare and make into delicious pies. Not too many people would open their homes for such an endeavor! Joy was, indeed, a very special lady. My sincere sympathy to Pete, Rhonda, Bob and family.

To the Thompson family, Sorry to hear the passing of your mom. I worked with her at Farm Credit many years ago. I started there in June 1979 on Brook Rd. We went to a few office assistant conferences together. I remember she liked to paint and tried to teach me. She always remembered me each year by sending a Christmas card. Thinking of you all during this difficult time.
