

Joyce Laverne Bell

November 18, 1946 - July 18, 2025

Joyce Laverne Bell was born on November 18, 1946, in Charles City, VA to the late Rudolph Bell, Sr. and Helen Whitehead Bell. She is also preceded in death by her stepmother, Lorene Jones-Bell.

Joyce attended Elam Baptist Church during her early years, and later joined and was baptized at Little Elam Baptist Church. As a child, Joyce attended Henrico County Public Schools. As she grew older, Joyce also attended the Woodrow Wilson Training Center in Fishersville, VA, and later the Adult Developmental Center in Richmond, VA. She was employed by the Richmond ARC, and made candle holders and rugs in these jobs. Joyce benefited from these organizations that advocated for and supported people with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

Joyce enjoyed spending time with her family and traveling. She loved going to the beach with her mother and other family members. Joyce also enjoyed watching soap operas, and got emotionally involved with them. After the passing of her parents, Joyce's family extended beyond the Bell, Whitehead and Charity families. She was blessed to have the Craddocks as loving caregivers and "family."

Joyce is survived by her siblings, Rudolph ("Rudy") Bell, Jr., Warren Bell (JoAnne), Connie Barnes, Charmae Jackson (Melvin), Susan Miles (Anthony), and Agatha Porterfield, and a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins.

She leaves us with many memories that taught us about perseverance, love and compassion.

A funeral service will be held 12noon Thursday, July 24, 2025, at Little Elam Baptist Church, 8840 Church Lane, Charles City, VA 23030. A viewing will be held 2 hours prior to services. Interment to follow in the Union Cemetery, 7710 Courthouse Rd, Providence Forge, VA 23140.

“Joyce was a bright light wherever she was and such an inspiration to all. We're grateful for the way her family cared for her and ensured she got to go wherever she wanted to go. She now lives in heaven, free from all of the earthly infirmities of this life. Rest in His Presence.

“ We remember when cousin Joyce would stay at the house when Aunt Helen went on vacation. Cousin Joyce would raise that crutch if someone said something or did something that she did not like. Cousin Joyce fought a battle but won the victory. Rest easy cousin Joyce. We will miss you
