Mama you were the glue that held our family together. We are lost right now missing you like crazy. Taking care of you this last week, hoping and praying for a miracle, praying for an earthly healing but GOD had a heavenly healing in store for you, our Angel. The pain we have as a family is unbearable, but knowing you aren't in pain any more does give us joy. You are walking on your own, no pain ever again, seeing Jesus face to face along with all of our family members who have walked on. One day our tears will dry as we remember you and all the things that you taught us. We will carry on your legacy not letting the great grandchildren forget to remember their JoJo. RIP mama till we meet again, I love and miss you so much.
