

Joyce Goad Ward

November 14, 1942 - March 23, 2021

Joyce Goad Ward, 78, of Lanexa, transitioned to heaven (2nd Corinthians 5:8) on March 23, 2021 after a long battle with cancer. Joyce was born on November 14, 1942 at the old Bell Hospital in Williamsburg, VA, to A. K and Nellie Goad. She graduated from James Blair High School, class of 1961.

Joyce was preceded in death by her parents and daughter Veronica (Bunny) Lichvar.

She is survived by her husband and best friend of almost 60 years Henry (HEJO61) , sons Gary (Virginia) of Yorktown, VA, Stephen of Lanexa, grandchildren Rebecca Lichvar and Jonathan Lichvar of Glen Allen, VA, son-in-law Chip Lichvar of Glen Allen and sister-in-law Debra Ward of Lanexa.

Joyce was a lifelong active member of Liberty Baptist Church, Lanexa, Va. She taught Sunday School for over 50 years, first with 7 year-olds and then adult women in the LLL class (whom she referred to as her girls). She also taught Vacation Bible School, served as a RA leader alongside Henry, and also served as Church Clerk.

Joyce and Henry loved taking trips together whether a day trip, such as checking out a new local restaurant or one 150 miles away, an overnighter, or longer trips to some new location or event. A new adventure was always around the next curve.

A drive-up memorial service will be held in front of the white building at Liberty Baptist Church, 15815 Liberty Church Road on Saturday March 27, 2021 at 2 PM. Attendees will remain in their car and tune their radio to 88.3 FM.

The family would like to thank those who cared for Joyce during her fight with cancer. Riverside Radiation, Virginia Oncology, SWRMC, and Amedisys Hospice Care.

Memorial donations may be made to the American Cancer Society or to Habitat for Humanity.

“ Dear Henry,

I have gone through every one of these tributes and should have clicked a "like" to all of them.. I so totally agree. You two were Mr. and Mrs. Liberty Baptist Church! Never thought of one name without the other. One verse comes to my mind in particular.

Philippians 3:17

17 Brethren, join in following my example, and observe those who walk according to the pattern you have in us.

“ Prayers go out to you Henry and the family. You both have been such great friends to uncle Wayne and Aunt Becky over the years. I have such great memories in Sunday school at liberty baptist of both you as a little boy. Joyce has served Christ her whole life and will be rewarded in heaven for sure but doesn't make it easy for us that are left behind. Only to know that we all will meet again some day!

“Joyce was always so sweet and kind to my brother, Danny, who is developmentally disabled and always stopped by our seats at church to speak to Danny and me; even though we were new to the church she made us feel like family. A wonderful lady who was a shining example of Christian love for others.

Gone From My Sight
by Henry Van Dyke

*I am standing upon the seashore. A ship, at my side, spreads her white sails to the moving breeze and starts for the blue ocean. She is an object of beauty and strength.
I stand and watch her until, at length, she hangs like a speck of white cloud just where the sea and sky come to mingle with each other.*

Then, someone at my side says, "There, she is gone."

Gone where?

*Gone from my sight. That is all. She is just as large in mast, hull and spar as she was when she left my side.
And, she is just as able to bear her load of living freight to her destined port.
Her diminished size is in me -- not in her.*

And, just at the moment when someone says, "There, she is gone," there are other eyes watching her coming, and other voices ready to take up the glad shout, "Here she comes!"

“Henry, our prayers are with you and your family. She is loved by so many and touched so many lives. I can't imagine how many people she will meet in heaven that are there themselves because of her faithfulness to share the gospel. What a wonderful life you two have had together. Thank you for modeling your love and commitment to each other as an example to us all. With love, Ruth and Sammy Yates
