“ I remember the summers I spent with Aunt Judy and Uncle Willard. Being afraid of the animals and Judy helping me along. Wanting to help her with the cooking, and her never making me feel in the way. Riding bikes up and down that long rd. I will forever regret not going to visit again in later years. I am thinking of Sandy, Cindy, Dianna, and Scott. My heart goes out to Willard. May peace find each of you in this terrible time.

“ I first met Judy back in summer on 1963, she and Willard lived in Crozet and Sandy was a baby. I had such a good time with you that summer. Then I had Susan and you had Scott the same year, they became friends for awhile. Rest in the loving arms of Jesus now and look down on us. Good bye sweet lady, love Ritzy.
