Judy married Eric M. Jones, Sr. on May 22, 1982. They were blessed with one son, Eric, Jr. Judy had a jovial spirit and loved to be around family and friends especially the Sunday family gatherings.

“ I couldn't have asked for a better Sister-n-law. You have been there for me when I needed anything, a friend, a sister, when I lost my sister, we've shared many things with each other. The good and the bad. I can't imagine not hearing you laugh and us sitting around singing songs, having church, praising God! Forever in our hearts, Stackey, Pat, Jae, and Ayanna ❤️

“ Judy was such a great person. She was so dedicated to her patients. I remember dealing with a very sick resident on night shift and was absolutely relieved to see Judy come through the door at 7am. She advocated above and beyond for them. Her sense of humor and caring nature will be truly missed.

We were saddened by Judy's recent illness and passing. We met Judy at Virginia State via our dearly deceased friend Pete Jones. We shared many fun times with them including your birth Eric Jr. May your faith and the fond memories you have of times with your mother, daughter and friend sustain you now and in the days ahead.

"Rest in Paradise". God pick another beautiful angel to come into his garden and have rest, eternal rest. Judy was a very nice person with that beautiful smile and always willing to help. She would talk about God and the bible all the time. Eric and family, I know it it hard right now but keep all the precious memories of her at heart and she will never fade away. Weeping shall endure for a night but joy comes in the morning because you know she is with the "LORD"..
