“ Julian was my brother-in-law and the best person. He would take the shirt off his back and give it to you and he did this for me several times. We had our ups and downs but he was like a brother to me. God please take care of him for he and my sister have been apart very few times and he doesn't do alone well. So look out for him until she gets there. R.I.P. my brother until we meet in heaven.
