“ I only met Karl several years ago during my fishing visits to the West Point Boat ramp. I enjoyed talking with him and on numerous occasions we met up on the water as he was pulling his nets or crab traps . I was fortunate to have purchased soft shell crabs on a couple of occasions, they were the best. I learned of Karl's passing from another waterman on November 3 while fishing for rockfish at West Point. I will miss meeting up with Karl and I send my best to the Vandergriff family and my prayers to all the Watermen in the area. Rick Nesossis, Lanexa

“ I've never met Mr. Karl but I have the pleasure of calling he daughter Melissa my friend, and she is amazing. I can tell from knowing her how much of a great father he is, and how big of a role he played in shaping her into the wonderful young lady she is today. Mr. Karl may you rest in peace and prayers to the family in this sorrowful time.
