“ Kermit holds a special place in my heart. I remember the years when he and dad worked at the Richmond Broom Company - he and dad would ride together. He also was a fixture at our home when mom was in the hospital for several weeks and Dollie looked after us kids. My love and prayers are with you all. Violet

“ Mr. Bradby was a special man. A very kind, sweet, and gentle soul. So caring and giving yet always smiling. I so enjoyed seeing him when he would come in my office taking time to talk. To Laurie, Mrs. Bradby and boys, so very sorry for your loss. Prayers for your family,

“ It was truly an honor to know Kermit. He usually had a smile on his face and if he didn't have a reason to, well he would just the same. Many, Warrior employees enjoyed his gentle sense of humor. The smile I will remember always, Godspeed Kermit.

“ I have so many great memories with my grandfather. He was a gentle, kind, humble, caring person. A great role model, in all my years I never ever recollect him complaining or swearing. Through out the two or three years of being ill after suffering a stroke, he never once complained about his situation or his failing health. Even until the end, he would always reassure me when I asked him if he were okay with "Yeah" as if annoyed by my constant asking. Simply a great man and I'm very lucky having had him in my life. Until we meet again papa, I love you with all of my heart. Rest easy.
