“ My Aunt Lencie. She was an amazing woman that cherished family and did everything she could to be apart of my life. I didn't get to see her much because I grew up and live on the west coast and she has was on the east coast. I have memories of staying with her and her daughter Michelle. Along with visiting her beautiful house in Fishkill. I have great memories of her - one Christmas she went to the Wu Wear store in downtown New York to get me a Wu Tang T-shirt because she knew how much I was into their music. She was always such a warm loving person, I loved hearing her voice on the phone. Best to you Aunt Lencie RIP love always

Lancie McCloud was more than the most beautiful loving sister on this entire planet! When our blood mother was taken away from us at my birth in Goochland, Virginia, in 1946, my one year older big sister Lancie (who my older brother Billy and I later nicknamed Sissie) almost immediately became instrumental in raising me and my late Brother Bill. For the next seventy-six years of her life she was my sister, my surrogate mother and the very best friend I've ever known! I could not be more proud of the woman who dropped out of her sophomore year in high school to get married and have a couple of babies that she later raised as a single mother. Without so much as a high school diploma she entered a competitive work world that took her and her two girls to New York and Westchester County where she enjoyed a business success story that took her all the way up to the highest levels, becoming a corporate and board room executive for one of the fastest growing hotel chains in the country during her thirty years of hard work with a firm. I will always remember my Sissie with utmost love and pride that I will keep forever! Rest in Peace my wonderful Lancie Mae! Thank you, Thank you,... Thank You!
