

Larry Gene Craddock

July 19, 1957 - December 9, 2022

On Friday, December 9, 2022, God called his son Larry Gene Craddock to be with Him. Larry was born to the late John and Sarah Gladys Jones Craddock, on July 19, 1957 in Richmond, VA.

Larry Graduated from Huguenot High School and received a degree from Norfolk State University in Music. Larry was an avid musician who played the saxophone. He played with the band Standing Room Only. He also played the saxophone with the chorus at Little Elam Baptist Church. Aside from playing the saxophone, Larry was an avid fisherman. He also was a fan of the Washington Redskins, whom he referred to as the "Commodores" when they changed the name!

Larry was preceded in death by his parents, John and Sarah Gladys Jones Craddock; sister, Lisa Craddock; brother, Ronald Wayne Craddock and aunts, Beatrice Geraldine Jones and Elizabeth Johnson.

He is survived by his brother, Kenneth Craddock; sister-in-law, Bertha Craddock; nieces, Jade Craddock, Sarita Craddock, Jaronda Craddock and Charnell Craddock; nephews, Ronald Wayne Craddock, Jr, and Dorian Craddock.; five aunts, Nannie Jones, May West Jones, Almeade Jones, Mildred Jones and Jeanette Denise Adkins (Raymond); two uncles, Samuel Anderton (Helena) and Curtis Walker, along with a host of cousins and friends.

A memorial service will held 2 p.m. Friday, December 16, 2022, at Vincent Funeral Home, Providence Forge, VA 23140.
