

Leroy Alfred Williams

September 28, 1942 - July 14, 2022

Leroy A. Williams, 79, of Providence Forge, born to the late Lois Williams, entered eternal rest on Thursday July 14, 2022.

Leroy was a graduate of the New Kent County Public Schools, class of 1961. Upon completing school, he went further into studies at the then Virginia State College. Leroy was a self-proclaimed “Outdoorsman!” He loved anything to do with being outside. Whether he was in his garden growing vegetables or cutting grass, Leroy was in his element. He liked to keep his lawn freshly manicured!

Leroy was a hardworking man and great with his hands. That was evident as he was a master mechanic. If it was automotive related, Leroy could tell you what was wrong and fix it! He used to work for Hechler Chevrolet amongst other places in and around the Richmond area. He was so good, that he became an Associate Professor of Auto Technologies and retired from J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College. Leroy also shared his talents with the Bridge Community Regional Career and Technical Center in New Kent County.

Leroy was also a proud member of the Mount Pleasant Baptist Church in Providence Forge, VA. He helped lend his handywork talents to the church whenever he could. To know Leroy, was to love him and he will certainly be missed. He was preceded in death by his mother, Lois Williams, and loving wife of 27 years, Sevilla Williams.

Leroy is survived by his devoted cousin, Sharon Johnson (Jerome); devoted son, Brandon Short; children, St. Claire, Gregory and Kim; eight grandchildren, four great grandchildren and a host of extended relatives and devoted friends.

A funeral service will be held 12Noon Friday, July 22, 2022 at Vincent Funeral Home, Providence Forge, VA. Viewing will be one hour prior. Interment to follow at Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church, Providence Forge, VA.

Mask will be required when attending services

“ I am so sorry to learn of Leroy's passing. I will always remember his great smile and the joy he had when we were together. He was very proud of his pants leg with the zipper. I will be forever grateful for him repairing my lawnmower. He will be missed.

My thoughts and prayers are with you and his family during this time of loss. If there is anything I can do, please don't hesitate to ask.

Sincerely,

Greetings, blessings and condolences to the William's Family. Leroy was my roommate at Virginia State University. We shared a first floor room in Puryear Hall during our senior year. Leroy and I visit my home in Buckingham County along with Oliver Seldom, who was another great friend of both of us. We also visited Oliver's home. They had cars, and I loved to ride. One Sunday afternoon sitting in our dormitory room we saw an old man, in our young opinion, working on his car. I suggested to Leroy that we go and help him. Leroy said okay man let's go. As I watched the whole situation, Leroy repaired the car. Monday afternoon in my Advanced ROTC Class the Professor of military Science, Lieutenant Colonel Travis Jimmy Lee Stephen thanked me for helping repair his car that Sunday Afternoon. Leroy and I had no idea he was the Professor of Military Science at Virginia State College. But that was Leroy's attitude and personality. If he saw one in need he was anxious to share his talents and resources to help. May you be blessed knowing that Leroy was a kind and gentle young man that I had the pleasure of knowing in the years of our young man manhood. I did not see Leroy after our senior year, but I did talk to him on the phone on one occasion.

May you all be blessed.

*Sincerely,

*Oh Mr Leroy, My Dad-Doug Wilson and Mr Leroy worked together for years at Hechlor Chevrolet on nine mile road when I was a young girl. I can always remeber going in there and how nice Mr. Leroy was. My dad always talked so fondly of him-they were good friends- then to see him again almost 50 years later at the pharmacy in providence forge where I work was soo awsome and he was still the same sweet man I remember from when I was young,all my co-workers learned to love him too! The world lost a great man who forever touched my heart.
Rest easy Mr. Leroy! You will be missed and I know my Dad will be glad to see you! Terri Wilson Lane*
