

Lesa Kay Sikor

November 3, 1959 - November 26, 2018

Lesa Kay Sikor, 59, reached eternal rest on November 26, 2018. A native of West Point, VA, Lesa moved to Williamsburg later in life and worked for approximately 30 years as a saleswoman in Kingsmill. She was a tender-hearted woman who loved to help anyone or anything that needed assistance. On many occasions Lesa stopped on the roadside to rescue a wounded animal and take them to the veterinarian.

Lesa was preceded in death by her father, Boyd Sikor. She is survived by her husband, Carlos Rendon; a sister, Julia Jones, and her family; as well as her beloved dogs, Tinker and Mocha; and many friends who will miss her dearly. A memorial service will be held 2 PM, Friday, November 30th at Williamsburg Mennonite Church, 7800 Croaker Rd., Williamsburg, VA 23188. Donations in Lesa's memory can be made to an animal rescue of your choice.

“ I was saddened to hear about the passing of my sister Lesa. I learned this on my own a couple of weeks ago so I have no idea of the circumstances. I wish I had been contacted.
