*Dear friends and family of Lillian VanDenburgh:
I originally found this obituary on September 8, 2011 and immediately became overwhelmed with great sadness. As I came across the obituary again today in cleaning out some files I pulled up this tribute wall and felt compelled to respond even though it's been quite some time since Lillian's passing.*

I will never forget LeeAnn (as I knew her) and our precious friendship. I especially remember her love of Christmas and celebrations and dinner parties. One Christmas she hand-sewn an enormous pink satin stocking for me which stood almost 4 feet high. I treasure it still today.

LeeAnn had the best laugh in the whole world and a kind and caring heart. She was a great cook and she loved entertaining. She never wanted to bother anyone with any problem and she would go out of her way to be helpful. I'm not in contact with any of LeeAnn's family and thought if they saw this they would be grateful for the comments from someone who loved her so much.

*Merry Christmas,
Donna Tempelman*
