“ I met Lillian later in her life and loved the visits my husband and I shared with her. A beautiful soul with a wonderful outlook, she brightened her home and made guests feel both welcome and appreciated. We talked about books, our mutual interest in education and just enjoyed each other's company. Please accept my sympathy to family members; Lillian was most special and will be missed.

“ I am very sorry for your loss . Losing a loved one in death is such a difficult thing to experience . Please be comforted by the promises in the Bible . Jesus tells us at John 5 : 28 , 29 that all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out . What a loving provision put in place by the God of all comfort so we can have the assured hope of seeing our dead loved ones live again one day . Meanwhile as I pray for that day to come I ask Jehovah God to bless your family and give each of you the strength to endure this most trying time .

“ Lillian, as I knew her, always made you feel as tho she was so happy to see you , to have you visit, and share a cup of tea. She loved talking about her beloved animals, her family and to make sure you were doing well. She was the epitome of a kind, sweet person and when I was in the area I tried to stop and see her. I will miss her dearly, but know she is definitely in God's hands! ”

“ Smiling and gracious, always, she is a lady I will long remember. She and I attended Sy John's Episcopal Church in West Point from 1984-2007..... And I know of her devotion to her husband, Mr. major, who was West Point's school superintendent and who led the division with an eye to excellence. He and she are, to me, the best of us....the most kind, compassionate, and intelligent. I am glad to say I know them and honor them. ”
