

Linda Diane Martin Harlow

July 18, 1949 - January 14, 2026

A life well-lived, full of adventure and joy, came to a close on January 14th, 2026, in Providence Forge, Virginia. Born in 1949, Linda Diane Martin Harlow was known for her adventurous, outgoing, energetic, and happy personality. She had a deep love for horses, cherished her time with family and friends, and created many wonderful memories.

Linda was preceded in death by her husband, Thomas “Tommy” Harlow; and her son, Jason Harlow.

Linda is survived by her son, Kenneth Harlow and his wife, Kimberly; two sisters, Kathleen Bowles and Deborah Martin; and three grandchildren, Brendan Harlow, Zachary Harlow, and Austin Harlow.

A celebration of life service is being planned, please check back here for the announcement of those arrangements.

“ My heart just sank as I read Linda passed away in Jan.

I worked with Linda at AMF and was happy to call her my friend since those days. I'll always remember her spirit and the many laughs we had. God Bless Linda and the extended Harlow family. Good Bye Linda.

“ I was a temp with AMF and worked with Linda very briefly. But in my short time with her, she made a huge impact on me with her wit, kindness and great stories. I think about her often and I always will. I am truly sorry for your loss.

“ Dear Family, loved ones and friends,
We are so sorry for your loss.
Linda and Tommy were a very special couple,
we loved it when ever we got to see them...
they always made us laugh.
Cherish your precious memories.
With heartfelt sympathy,
Gloria Couch and Inez Hawthorne
