“ Although Linda and I worked in different offices at the Virginia Department of Education, we shared a collegial bond. She was such a positive and energetic person and always willing to provide assistance to external and internal requests. Linda will be missed, but her engaging manner and perky smile remain. Prayers of comfort are being offered to the family.

“ Linda,
We didn't know each other long but the time we did will always be lasting and memorable to me. I will miss out talks at work and your loving nature. You will never be forgotten and may "GOD" keep you close to his heart. Rest in peace my friend.
