“ I will never forget all of the memories we had together. You would drop anything and everything you were doing to help momma, Randy, Regan, Cole, or myself. I know you will look down on us as we all strive to make you proud of us. Today, April 15th, was such a beautiful day, it even rained in the morning because you got your hair done so beautiful. (Haha) You we’re showered with lots of love, prayer, and flowers surrounded by wonderful family and close friends. I love you forever, and will always strive to make you proud.

I can’t wait to give you a big hug and kiss some day. Til’ I see you again. I love you Meemaw

“ I remember being told that when mom and dad left Kristy and I with Linda and Vernor(Grandma) to go out to dinner. I was about 2 I guess. It was storming and Linda took my bottle and pacifier from me and threw them out the front door into the woods. It was many years later that I was helping clean up the edge of the woods and found the bottle. Lol. She was definitely a one of a kind woman. Always loved her Gold jewelry. I use to always look at her NEW pieces every Christmas during dinner.
