

Loyal Spencer Moore

April 20, 1934 - February 7, 2024

Loyal Spencer Moore went to be with his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, on February 7, 2024. He was born on April 20, 1934 in upstate New York, the town of Mooers Forks. Born to Earl Adams Moore and Ethlyn Massey Moore, the family owned and worked a dairy farm about 3 miles from the Canadian border. The family moved to Henrico Virginia in 1952, and Loyal graduated from Varina High School in 1954. In his younger years, Loyal was an excellent athlete, focusing primarily on basketball, yet playing team softball into his 50's. Loyal was an avid sports fan, specifically the NY Yankees, Dallas Cowboys, and University of Richmond football and basketball. He retired from CSX where he served as a manager most of his career.

Loyal was predeceased by his parents, his sisters, Dorothea "Dot" Moore and Edna Moore Hill (Stan). He is survived by his loving wife, Jean Moore; his brother Kenneth "Ken" Moore, his daughter Karen Binion (William "Billy"), his son Jeffrey Moore (Rosel), his grandchildren Molly Binion Eisenback (Justin), Billy Binion, Tyler Moore, Kaitlyn Moore and great grandchild, Olivia Eisenback.

We would like to thank his caregivers at Suncrest Hospice, Kenny, Robin, Phyllis, Nora and others, as well as his private caregivers, Claudia, Sasha, Ginny and Su. They kept him as comfortable as possible as his body gave out from the effects of Parkinson's. We also believe he could not face a rematch of Joe Biden and Donald Trump.

A family graveside service will take place at Beulah Church Cemetery, Saluda, VA. A celebration of life will be held at 2:30 PM, Saturday March 2nd at Tuckahoe Pines Retirement Community in Goochland and visitation will begin at 1:30 PM. Parking is limited; a shuttle will run from Hope Church across the street.

“ I have fond childhood memories of our family visiting cousin Loyal and his family on their dairy farm in upstate New York. Loyal's mother, Ethlyn, was the oldest sister of my father, Hersey Massey. When they moved to Virginia, we enjoyed many special times together with family. Loyal was one of 33 first cousins in the Massey family. He will be missed!

I have some of my best childhood memories of being at family gatherings with Uncle Loyal. He was just as kind and sweet as he could be and a joy to be around. Just an all around wonderful human being.

I met Loyal late in life. I never met a finer person. We worked together at Enterprise. I fondly remember my time with him and he was one of our best employees. My prayers and thoughts are with his family. Jerry Haynes
