

Malcolm Duncan Donaldson

February 22, 1945 - March 28, 2021

Malcolm D. "Don" Donaldson, 76, of King William, VA passed away March 28, 2021. He was born in Portsmouth, VA to the late Alexander and Jessie Donaldson. Don served in the United States Navy during the Vietnam War. He retired from AT &T as an electrician. Don enjoyed fishing, camping and gardening. He loved being at the beach.

Don was preceded in death by a brother David Donaldson.

He is survived by his wife of 45 years Jennifer; his children Cary Donaldson (Marion), Sean Donaldson (Sara), Amy Bryant (Jeremy) and Emily Dunstan (Shawn); a sister Janet Moss; grandchildren Beth Niles (Jeremy), Jessica Donaldson, Malcolm Donaldson (Carrie), Allie and Ella Donaldson, Audrey and Brooke Bryant; Jayden, Kenadie and Jax Dunstan; great-grandchildren Adalae Donaldson, Myron, Aiden and Abbagail Niles, Darwin and Merida Donaldson.

The family is planning a private memorial service.

Tribute Wall

MM

“ You were my husband's blanket for many years. You sheltered him and kept him safe and warm. You made sure he had a jump on his education and you even were his first spiritual guide. You saved him from another life that may have ended badly, you pushed him to prove himself. I thank you for all of that because of you I have my husband and best friend. Granddaddy Don..we Love you!

Marion aka Merium - April 12, 2021 at 01:52 PM

JE

“ All ways made sure everyone had a fire extinguisher. You loved your little dogs. Now you can run around with your Sunny Girl I know she's happy to see you again. Those morning walks on the beach looking for that perfect conk shell. For the longest time you were Mr. President. We miss you

Jessie - April 03, 2021 at 12:30 PM