

Margaret Miles

May 28, 1926 - March 22, 2025

Margaret Miles, 98, of Charles City, Virginia, passed away on March 22, 2025. She was the daughter of the late WWI US Army Veteran, William McKinley Cotman of Charles City, VA and Martha Crutchfield, of Pittsburg, Pennsylvania.

Margaret accepted Christ at an early age and continued to pursue a life in Christ wherever she went. In Charles City, Va, she was affiliated with Little Elam Baptist Church. In Richmond, VA, she attended services at Trinity Baptist Church. Once she settled down in Silver Spring, MD, she was affiliated with Colesville Baptist Church, until her health began to decline.

Margaret was a crafty person and worked well with her hands. She worked in textiles for several years, creating beautiful hand-woven works of art. She took pride in her work and often pondered over her life. This allotted her the ability to write a book. In her book, she shared stories and the wisdom she obtain through these events, to share with others.

Margaret learned to persevere in life and that served her well. As she got older her health began to decline but she never gave up. Her perseverance and trust in the Lord, saw her through heart surgery and brain surgery. She was truly a fighter up until the very end. She was preceded in death by her first husband, Milton Brown; son, Ronald Brown; and her daughter Alease

Virginia Smith and her spouse, Robert; second husband French; and third husband, Eddie Miles.

Margaret is survived by her daughter, Pearl Tucker; grandchildren, August Stacy Martin, Tracy Martin and Tariq Tucker; great grandchildren, Austin Tucker, Jillian Tucker, and Anthony Tucker; nieces, June Crawley, Ruby Smith, Crystal Logan, and Sharon Davis; nephew, Richard Smith, and a host of other relatives and friends.

A funeral service will be held 1PM Saturday, April 5, 2025, at Vincent Funeral Home, 9923 Pocahontas Trail, Providence Forge, VA 23140. The family will receive friends one hour prior to services.
