

Margo Lucielle Henning

April 27, 1955 - August 15, 2023

Our mother, Margo Lucielle Henning of Williamsburg, VA peacefully passed on August 15, 2023, after living a life of love, laughter and caring for others. Born April 27, 1955, in Camp Lejeune, NC she resided in Williamsburg for most of her life.

Margo had many titles throughout her life, accountant, Bus Aide for James City County Schools, Sister, Aunt, Friend, Caretaker for her grandmother, mother, and many others within the community. However, the title she loved the most was Mom and Meme.

The Sun, Sand and Water were what Margo enjoyed the most. Those who knew her, knew her love of the Outer Banks and that there was her favorite place to be. Many often joked with her that she truly was part mermaid.

Margo is preceded in death by her grandmother, Mabel Woodard, mother, Margaret Mason and her brother, John Henning. Surviving members of her family include her daughter Heather McKown-McClarrie (Randy), son Christopher McKown, son Nicholas McKown, daughter Brittany Jackson (Zach) and her daughter Aubrey Warburton. Four grandchildren, April, Shayne, Grayson and Prim, we can't forget her "fur" granddogs that she loved as well, Cocky, Jaxson, Bella, Elle, Freya and Cooper. Margo is also survived by her brother Clifton (Kathy), sister Theresa (Gary), brother Michael (Yong) along with many nieces and nephews.

Our family extends our deepest gratitude to Affinity Care of Newport News. Specifically, Sheila, Becky and Nakole. Also, to our brother Christopher who was by her side daily, taking care of her needs, comforting and taking care of her.

Margo's wishes that were in lieu of flowers, any donations be made to Affinity Care of Virginia, 714 Thimble Shoals Blvd, Suite C, Newport News, VA 23606

“ I only met Margo for the first time about a week before she passed. Her daughter, Heather, and I have become dear friends over past couple of years. I met and visited with Margo for a few hours and she put on her parrot earrings and sat up and talked to me and told me stories about her babies. She was a delight and very fun to be around even in the end. She told me of the love she has for each of her babies and she sure did love all of them very much and she was so proud of each of them. Margo obviously had a sense of humor and a burst of energy that was contagious that day. What a fun, special, beautiful lady. I am so glad I was able to Witness heather and Margo spend some Special mom and daughter moments together I am forever thankful that she and Andy had Heather because she is a true gift and blessing in my life. And Christopher, the love and care you showed your lovely mom Is something the 2 of you will carry in your hearts forever. And to all of the siblings you are all amazing, strong people and the support you have given each other during this time was really amazing. Love to all of you and so sorry for your loss. Love, kim

“ My favorite memories are staying the night at my Aunts house and having breakfast the next morning. She always remembered that I love sausage. Her love was warm and gentle. I will always remember her kind, fun, and free spirited heart. She will be missed and remembered by many.

“ Margo took very good care of Bama during Bama's last days. When she was with Margo she was happy and relaxed and laughed a lot. Andy and I were so thankful for her time with Bama. What a blessing Margo was during that difficult time for all of us.

“ I have so so many memories of Margo as we all do. One of my memories is how she loved listening to thunder storms and watching the lightening. She and I always had each other's back. My dear dear friend you were my other sister just from a different mother. You will be missed so much but you will be in my heart forever.

“ When I met Margo her and Andy had just started dating. I was so jealous because her nails were long and painted so pretty. When she was married to Andy I got to know her pretty well. Always kind and sweet to me. I moved to Charlotte NC to be near her and Andy. I didn't stay there long because I was homesick. When they moved back here I was still close to her. Then life happened and we lost touch. I am glad that her last days were spent with those she loved. She was a sweet lady who will be missed!

“ My dear, sweet friend... how very blessed was it to have you in my life. You entered my life unexpectedly and in our last words, I called you my Angel - and you shall always remain just that... "my Angel". You touched my heart, my spirit, my soul, and you shall never be forgotten. How blessed are those whose lives you touched, and how lucky is Heaven to receive you. It is said that for each tear shed, it but only represents that of beautiful memories, and boy do I have many. We shared so many wonderful times together.. from our trips to Nags Head, playing croquet, darts, wine festivals, dinners out together and most of all - our talks. Your gentle nature, wisdom, and how you could always make me feel at ease. Your smile and presence will be dearly missed. What an imprint your footsteps have left in my heart. How lucky am I to have shared something so special that makes saying goodbye so hard. Thank you for showing me what a true friend truly is. You may be gone from our sight, but never from our hearts.

“ There are SO many memories of my sweet , special sister-in-law Margo! She was one of a kind for sure! She was beautiful inside and out. She loved the family, especially the children and the elderly. She was a mermaid, did you know? Yep, she decided to stay with us on land, so you never saw her “tail”, but I knew the truth! We had many wacky adventures over decades! We had our secrets and supported each other. She was funny too. She could be a real dingbat , crazy stuff like 2 Fridays in a week, her car going hundreds of miles on a gallon of gas! Once, we were having a cookout, and she said “Is this pig or pork?” I laughed so hard and said “And you’re not even blonde!” She was a character. We all love and miss her SO much! Needless to say she may be gone but she will NEVER be forgotten!

Oh wow, the “pig or pork” is definitely something I’ve said and many other things like it, and Randy just shook his head. I guess I got it honestly “ Margo was my sister in law years ago and I loved her then and loved her to the end. She was caring , loving and yes she loved the beach and sun. I too envied her statue. So elegant and dressed that way as well. I remember when she used to wear a beautiful colored scarf around her head. Very snazzy. She gave me a beautiful niece. Then two sweet nephews.

What I can never thank her enough was the care she gave my mom in her final months on this earth. She was so attentive to Mom. They had a bond with each other. She shared with me things Mom said in her final night and I would have never know if not for sweet Margo. Give mom and my sibilngs a hug and kiss from me. Love ya! Donna Dey ❤️

“ I have so many memories with Margo. She was my second mom. Her daughter Brittany was my best friend and because of us our mom's become best friends and a beer. Lol but the one memory I will cherish the most is the newest one. We were drinking wine and watching ghost stuff and having some good laughs and talking about everything. I will miss her dearly.

“ I remember Margo being a huge part of my childhood, as my aunt. I always thought secretly she was a movie star because she had the long legs and and beautiful black hair. I have fond memories of spending time at Bama’s pool playing in the sun. I was always memorized by her and her loving nature. I am most thankful she remained part of our family, especially when she took the best end of life care for our Bama. I can remember laying next to Bama in her bed in the final days and Margo would come in and check on her, or we would stop by the house and she was reading to Bama or making her laugh. Bama loved her like her own daughter and to me, that meant we loved her as our aunt forever. I loved to hear her greet us with her voice as he drew out our name, and always welcomed us with a hug. She had compassion and love and kindness. We are all better people because she loved us unconditionally.

“ Margo and I were teenage friends. I moved to Georgia in 1976 and her and her daughter Heather came to see me and my daughter Tammy. Special memory. I did get to have dinner with her when my husband and I came to Williamsburg a couple years ago. I will always remember her.

“ Another thing we always did when I was younger would be to go to the library and check out books. We would go down to the river and have a blanket and just lay out there in the sun reading our books and talking. She actually got me into going and getting a library card and now my children have them as well. I have many more memories but these are the ones that stand out the most and I have passed onto my children

“ I remember when Aunt Margo would take me to work before I started driving and we would have our talks and one day she was teaching me about passing cars, she told me when it was solid on our side the road then think of it being a wall and if I tried to pass I would crash, and then if it was the ones with spaces it was ok to pass because of the spaces in between. I have always remember her teaching me that and I have now passed that on to my daughter who is learning to drive. 😊
