

Marie Smith Belvin

September 19, 1925 - August 3, 2020

Marie Smith Belvin, 94, of Toano, passed away peacefully in her sleep on Monday, August 3rd.

Ms. Belvin was born in Fluvanna County, Va. and moved to Toano as a child, where she was a lifelong resident. She retired from the United States Post Office as a Postmaster, and was a member of Mt. Vernon United Methodist Church. Ms. Belvin was an avid sports fan, and she also loved gardening, bird watching, country music, going to the beach, and spending time with family.

Ms. Belvin was preceded in death by her two children, Dale Belvin and Brenda Mullen Hockaday; her parents, William Smith and Mary Mable Smith Morris; her seven siblings, Katherine Higgs, James, Herbert, Viola, Ed, Earnest, and Carnell Smith; sisters-in-law, Jo and Selma Smith; and son-in-law, Otis Mullen.

Ms. Belvin is survived by her grandchildren, Angela Hicklin (Jeff), Dwayne Mullen (Sara), Kim Padgette (Michael); great-grandchildren, Ellie Mullen and Graham Padgette; nephews, John Edward "Eddie" Higgs, Earnest "Earnie" Higgs, Lanny Smith (Betty), Warren Smith (Kathy), and Keith Smith (Lucy); nieces, Betty Jo Durrett and Kim Ivey (Gordon); daughter-in-law, Vickie Belvin; and many more great-nieces and nephews.

A graveside service will be held 10 a.m., Monday, August 10th at Williamsburg Memorial Park with Pastor Randy Garner officiating.

“ Brenda and I were great friends in high school. I would spend many nights at her house. Marie was the sweetest lady. Always a gentle voice and kind person. As life would have it , my sister Kathy married her nephew Warren Smith. Glad Marie is going to see Dale and Brenda. Donna M Martin

“ Nana had a way with people to include the men folk. During her stay in the nursing home she found a little boyfriend named Stanley. Every time I would go to visit her, Mr. Stanley would approach me and say,
“Honey, one day you’re going to show up here and Miss Marie is going to be gone.”
And I would say “Mr. Stanley, what do you mean?”
He would reply, “She and I are going to get married and run away to Mexico!”
Well Mr. Stanley don’t leaving her waiting to long, she’s got a good head start. 😊
