“ To a very special man, that made my day and mom's day at Marie's. We love you then and we still love you now. We are so sorry for your family's loss. Hubba, you were such a great guy, you would make anyone's day when you walked into the restaurant when mom and I was there. mom always called you and the others her son. rest in peace and I know heaven is laughing out loud now May God be with your family and your friends.

“ To Mark's family ~ I am so saddened by Mark's sudden passing. I met Mark at NKHS in the '60's. We were good friends and our parents were friends. I recall with great fondness such things as his "redhead. personality", his unique laugh, and his more unique basketball foul shot stance! My wish for all who loved him is comfort and peace.
