“ One of my favorite memories of Martin is when we—Kitty, Uncle Mark, and I—took him, Nathan, Justin, and Danny (before Billy was born) to Skyline Drive, to hike and stay overnight. On our first hike Martin was chatting away, and we told him he'd be more likely to see wildlife if he was quieter. Right then, a beautiful deer walked by. Martin was impressed! It seems like all the boys practically tiptoed through the rest of the hike in hopes of seeing more deer. I think it was that night that we took them up to the bar next to the restaurant for nonalcoholic Shirley Temple drinks. They had their own table, and I'll always remember the brothers sitting together, kicking back together after a day on the mountain.
