“ Our hearts go out to Gail and family, If anyone had a foot in heaven, it was Marvin! He was so devoted to First Baptist and is appreciated as a Sunday school teacher and all other work at church and he gave great hugs! We will sorely miss him?

“ My sincere condolences to the family. Marvin and I were fellow apprentices and spent most of our career in the same department in the shipyard. He was a fun and high energy friend.

“ My Dear Friend .. over the years I had the honor of calling you a friend and you were always willing to help me out with things going on in our church or even things in this world which were puzzling but Marvin had a vision and was sure that things would work out as they were intended to. I would only hope and pray that more people like Marvin are going to be born in this world .. He was a 1 of a Kind hero !
