“ Barry and Clint, and the grandson’s and grandchildren, I am so sorry, I pray for your comfort only God can give. Nanny (Mary) held a special place in my heart and I will miss her. Last November 2nd I lost my own mother Marie Glenn, at the service Mary with tears in her pretty blue eyes hugged me and told me she loved me. It was the hug, love and comforting words I needed. It felt like home. Easter, Christmas, Thanksgiving holidays she made special for everyone. I was lucky enough to see her the past few weeks and look into her pretty blue eyes and thank her for the love she showed me and my son Jacob, her oldest grandson. I believe she’s with Papa (Beverly) maybe singing hymns in heaven just like they did all those years together at Tabernacle United Methodist Church, in Barhamsville.
