“ To my Dear Sister Mary. We lived miles apart but we had a lot of phone calls, letters and cards to each other.I remember when you where younger and how you use to follow me around and I didn't like it very much. Mom said. It was ok for you to do this because you were my little sister and someday I would be glad to have a little sister. Well today is that day.I will miss you very much. With all my love,Barb

“ Mary was my loving, caring and faithful wife for 35 years, with some my most precious memories being with her trying to play volleyball in the pool. To me she's the prettiest woman in the world. I typically got the latest news reports from her prayers. She loved kids and when Troy was here she was probably his oldest youth attending youth rallies. She was joyful to be around and loved being church praising Christ. I think we did pretty good for a couple that only new each other for 3 weeks when we got married.
I'm going to miss the raccoon lady until we meet again in Heaven!
