

Maryadele Somerville

November 10, 2010

Maryadele Murphy Somerville, 68, of Providence Forge, VA passed away on November 10, 2010. Known for her wit, intelligence, and friendliness, Mary will be greatly missed by her family and the many friends who enjoyed her company during her life. She was born and raised in Chicago, IL, and very much enjoyed spending winters in Bonita Springs, Florida. Mary was the oldest child of James and Adele Murphy. She is preceded in death by her sister, Kathleen Murphy and her brother, Timothy Murphy. Mary is survived by her husband, William Somerville; daughters, Amelia Moen and Julia Somerville; son, Michael Somerville; son-in-law, Chris Moen; daughter-in-law, Elisabeth Somerville; grandson, Davis Moen; sisters, Maureen Callahan and Colleen Dunigan; and brother, Patrick Murphy. A liturgy service will be held Sunday, November 14 at 2 p.m. at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Catholic Church, 2631 Pocahontas Trail, Quinton, VA. A memorial service and mass will subsequently be held in Chicago, IL. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to The Thurgood Marshall Academy Public Charter High School in Washington, DC.
