“ Very sad to hear of Mike’s passing, he was certainly an amazing Officer, person and friend. Many memories dating back over the last 26 years...many humorous based on how Mike was, always tended to make light even after intense moments. My condolences to his family, whom he always talked about sincerely.

“ I never had more fun being a police officer than I did with Mike. No matter what we found ourselves in, I never once felt we couldn't handle it. I have worked with many outstanding police officers but Mike is the only one I felt completely comfortable with. He was a great guy who gave his all to his family and community. When you run into Bruce, ask him for some use of force forms!! You will be missed Big Mike.

“ Mike, you will be missed. He was a great man, instructor, teacher and mentor. I still remember the first class I worked with Mike and I wasn't sure what to make of him, but we rapidly became great friends and colleagues and we just had a blast teaching together. He was always laughing and smiling and I've never known any instructor that upbeat. I learned many nuances from him as an instructor that helped me lighten up and improve my delivery in the classroom and in the car and what an influential mentor he was. RIP Mike and my condolences to the family.

“ Mike and I worked together at Williamsburg. He was a passionate officer and a great friend. I don't think Mike had one t-shirt that he didn't cut the neck out of because he wouldn't buy regular v neck t-shirt. My sincere condolences to Robin and the girls. Mike will be greatly missed by all. Rest in peace my friend.

“ A little more than 20 years ago, I was Mike's first "rookie", his Police Trainee. He never treated me unfairly and was always respectful regardless of my "status". It was always clear to me that his goal was to teach...that I may become the best I could be, and he is in large part one of the reasons for the success I have had. We had some good and exciting times riding together, and serving on the same squad as teammates. I, and this world, are better for his having been here.

“ We have known Mike and his parents "forever" and watched Mike grow up. He seemed to always greet everyone with a smile. As a child growing up, he was always playing sports. Mike was a kind and gentle person. Yes, indeed, he was a family man and his family has our deepest sympathy. Love, Bill and Jean Ann Rushton

“ I had the pleasure working with Mike at the Williamsburg Police Department. He was an amazing officer with a big heart. He loved his family very much. It would always be a fun shift working with him. He would always come to the Window of Dispatch and say ready for some fun. A great man gone too soon. Deepest Sympathy to all of his family. His Legacy will live on He will never be forgotten.
