“ My dearest MJ I can't believe you are gone but I know you are in a better place watching over everyone who loved you. So many times I wanted to tell you how I really felt but was too scared to lose the friendship and now I never will be able to say it face to face. My dear MJ I love you and have loved you for a long time I will miss you and you will ALWAYS have a place in my heart and life. 155 for life

“ Micheal Jr...my big cuz, my big brother. I can't believe that I'm writing this right now! I'm still in disbelief that you are gone. Me and you have so many memories together ❤️. Especially when we use to hit the clubs every Friday and Saturday night and you use to dress up and have your Micheal Jackson dress shoes on. I stayed asking him, man why do you always have to wear them dress shoes every time that we go out.I always use to clown him about wearing them shoes. It wasn't even that type of club to dress up for😂😂. But that was just Mike.So many more fun times and memories we shared together laughing and tripping hanging out doing what we did best.Im truly going to miss you cuz from the bottom of my heart ❤️! Continue to Rest Easy! Love you 🙏🙏🙏🙏❤️

“ Michael was one of my good Facebook buddies. He used to send me the funniest stuff through messenger. I hadn't seen him in a while until 2019. I walked up to him n said "hey Facebook buddy, he said hey Facebook friend it's so good to finally see you in person. He had a beautiful smile n everyone seemed to like or love him. R I P Facebook friend. God bless your family and friends.

“ May the Holy Spirit bring the Wallace family the peace and comfort they need to endure their time of bereavement. Michael and I have been friends since Kindergarten and we shared so many memories from youth to adulthood. He was genuine and would tell you the truth and didnt care if you didn't like it. I loved that about him, he could make comedy out of any situation just by being straight up. Time may have passed but when we saw each other it was like we just picked up where we left off. I will miss you. Michael Jr, but we have great memories and I will think of you often.

“ Well, my Son, much too soon God has called you home. As the heavens are higher than the earth, so is God thoughts and ways are above mines. I'm thankful for ALL memories of you, that's imprinted in my heart and mind. I'm also thankful for time that we had together, in this lifetime. As I navigate through these difficult days, (thinking of you), I've come to realize that it's God who got me through to the next day. I've got to remind myself to TRUST IN GOD WITH ALL MY HEART AND LEAN NOT UPON MY OWN UNDERSTANDING. I NEED TO ACKNOWLEDGE HIM IN EVERYTHING THAT I DO, AND HE WILL DIRECT MY PATH. I Love and Miss you Son, “ Condolences to the family. Michael Jr and I were in Charles City High at the same time and both were in the marching band. We had several friends in common and hung out often. One thing about Michael Jr, he was always the same, consistent. You always knew what you were going to get. He was always kind to me and I'll remember our last conversation just a month ago. RIP my friend.

“ Michael Jr you were my ace boon coon. We have had so many good times together. I am going to miss talking and laughing with you. I could always count on you for a good laugh. I remember when you had your accident and you called me to tell me they weren't treating you right in the hospital. I packed my stuff and moved in and we rotated making sure you were good. I love you and I will never stop missing you, I am glad I showed you how much I loved you while you were here. #noregrets 🚫
