“ My heart is heavy this morning! I didn't know until after the funeral was over. Mollie and Rodell were such a big part of my life and I would have been there to pay my respects. I hope she and my mom are deep into a bridge game already. I will miss her smiling face. Prayers to you RN and Carole as I know this is a difficult time for you. Anne Pillsbury Johnson

“ To the family of Mrs. Coffman, please accept our heartfelt condolences. May your happy memories and the love and comfort of your family and friends console you at this sad time. It is always difficult to lose your mom, no matter what your age. Although I did not know Mollie personally, her picture says a lot about her. God did not create us to grow old and die, but He put eternity in our hearts. (Ecclesiastes 3:11) May you also find comfort in the promise that soon He will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more. (Revelation 21:3,4) When God's Kingdom comes, and His will is done on earth, as it is already being done in Heaven, there will be no mourning or pain. (Matthew 6:9,10) Mollie is sleeping in God's memory and will soon awaken in perfect health in a beautiful paradise on earth! (Psalm 37:10,11,29) Her flesh will become fresher than in youth; she will return to the days of her youthful vigor! (Job 33:25) She will again be able to paint in a beautiful garden on earth! I sincerely hope you will find comfort in this good news from God's word! (Matthew 24:14)
