

Nancy Jane Giles

March 22, 1946 - September 12, 2018

Nancy Jane Giles, 72, of Williamsburg, VA, formerly of Virginia Beach, went to be her Lord and Savior September 12, 2018. She was a lifelong educator for Virginia Beach Public Schools and also coached cheerleading. Nancy was an avid NASCAR fan, who dearly loved cats and greatly enjoyed researching genealogy. She was preceded in death by her parents, Jesse and Jane Giles. She is survived by her daughter, Tracy McCann; a special cousin, Darlene Montez; and a grandson Jacob McCann.

A memorial service will be held at a later date. Memorial contributions can be made to a charity of your choice.

“ I am saddened to hear of the passing of our amazing cheerleading sponsor at Princess Anne High School. Ms. Giles was also my Government teacher. She was full of knowledge and had a great sense of humor. She put up with a lot of shenanigans with 14 High School cheerleaders for several years. Rest In Peace Ms. Giles. Praying for comfort and piece for your family. 🙏🙌💕💕

Ms. Giles was a great cheerleading coach and government teacher. We cheerleaders were a handful and she kept us in line. She'll always hold a special place in my heart.

I was always a handful in her class. I never did well in government class but I am interested in government more now than I ever thought I would be. When I left high school and joined the marine corps, she would write letters to me while I was in basic training. I wish I could write her a letter now. We would have a long discussion on what is going on in politics now. She will be missed.

Nancy was a good friend of mine as we were both members of the LDS church years ago. I was thinking about her recently and found her obituary online and wanted to post a memory. Nancy was always very loving and a faithful member of the Church. And she was always a good friend who I share alot of fond memories with. I miss her but know that she is in a better place and sharing her knowledge of the Savior with others in the spirit world.
