“ Norma was a friend for a very long time. We always seemed to meet in the post office or Dollar General. She and Brandon actually lived in our garage in Eltham for awhile after a fire. She was an outgoing personable friend and will be missed by many. Desi and I send prayers to Brandon and every one who loved her and will miss her terribly.

“ My heart breaks for all of Norma’s friends and family and especially her son, Brandon. I’ve know Norma for a lot of yrs. All of those yrs that she worked at the bank I remember her at the Bank of West Point where she worked with my sister who also has very fond memories of Norma. She was so nice and so kind to people. Can’t believe it was her time , but God certainly called home another angel 😇
