Norman Wayne Harbour, 59, of Henrico, VA, closed his eyes April 22nd in this world, and opened them in heaven. Norman was quite the sports enthusiast and loved to hunt. Even though he was a rugged man, he enjoyed being an artist and poet, he was a real renaissance man and a true gentleman. Norman was a devoted husband and beloved uncle. Norman is survived by his loving wife of 14 years, Missy Harbour; four sisters, Nancy, Mona, Susan and Anita; three brothers from another mother, Blaine Garrett, Devon Nease and Kenny Phoenix. The Lord also blessed Norman by placing ones he loved dearly in his life, Jordan Garrett, Brett Matschke, Amber Nease, Alex Garrett, Ryan Matschke and Perry Yeatts. He is also survived by numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. A memorial service will be held 11:30 AM, Saturday, May 4th at Olive Branch Christian Church, 7643 Richmond Road, Williamsburg, VA 23188. The family will receive friends 5:30 to 7:30 PM, Friday, May 3rd at the church. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions can be made to the Olive Branch Building and Youth Fund (address above).

“ I worked with Norm on and off since 1996 for Day and Zimmerman at the Ironbridge office. Norm was a force of nature, but not in a bad way. I've had a cubical in front of Norm for the past 7 years and now I will have silence. He fought a long hard battle and he was an inspiration to all who knew him and saw the fight in him as he battled this horrible illness. Fly high Norm, and rest, I know you were tired from the fight. You will be missed by all who knew and loved you.

“ I knew and worked with Norm for the past 20 years in Hopewell. He was always a great guy to work with, could always be counted on to go the extra mile and do more than his share. He was passionate about his work and took great pains to do the best job possible. He touched many lives in the office and will be missed by all of us. The last year was tough on Norm, but he faced every day with courage and a resolve that was an inspiration to me. I will miss the stories that he would tell me about his hunting with his friends. Rest in peace my friend.

“ Harbour family,I didn't know your love one,but I'm sending condolences in behalf of your loss..I know the pain that death can bring,,especially knowing you won't be able to talk to, hug or just see that person again.Isnt it a comfort to know that he is in God's memory and one day soon you have the hope of seeing him again in the resurrection.I pray for all of you to find peace and strength to deal with this difficult time.

“ I was thinking of the many times I had run into Missy and Norm in the last few years while I was out shopping or running errands, and they were always together, enjoying each other. To get a man out shopping at Target-now, that is true love!! I am so sorry that the world has lost such a kind, friendly soul. I send prayers to Missy and his family, that your hearts can find comfort and healing in this time of grief. I am thinking of you all so much during this time.

“ Norman was a kind, gentle and caring man. I loved talking with him about hunting deer. He helped my late husband, Jeffery, to be more mobile during his disability. Jeff couldn't get around very well because he had pulmonary fibrosis. Norman sold us his mother's motorized wheelchair for only $200.00! He and Missy delivered it to our home in Ottoman in the Northern Neck from Richmond. While we visited inside with Missy, Norman "test drove" the wheel-chair around the yard, down to the river and back again to be certain that it would handle the terrain and travel safely before Jeffrey tried the wheelchair for the first time. Now they are together. "To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord."(I Corinthians 5:8)

We loved that guy and we will surely miss his kind, sweet, friendly-to-us nature. He and Missy were one of those perfectly matched couples. His desire now that he is secure in his new home, is for Missy to be well cared for and deeply loved. While there will be a void in her life that none of us can fill, we will be there for her to lean on and to encourage her in her journey. She is a strong woman of faith and we know the Holy Spirit will be her comfort 🙏 Rest in peace, dear Norm. You lived well, you fought hard. Nothing more is required of you.

We love you...

“ To my brother Norman,, you fought a long and hard battle but your body just couldn't do it anymore. I will miss you and the fun times we had together. Stormin Norman that was true of you. You were a rage to be reckoned with whether it was graduating college, getting your decree, or whatever you wanted out of life. The best thing you did was marry Missy. You two have a love that will be there forever. You are with Mom, Dad, Michael, and Leon now. I know you are also watching over Missy and also me, Nancy, Susie, and Mona. You will always be in my heart. Love and miss you so much. As we always ended our phone calls I will talk to you later. Love your sister Anita.💕
