“ My beloved brother, Oatha Curtis Jones, was an immensely gentle, generous, and compassionate man, truly full of Father God's grace, mercy and love---for all of God's creatures---great and small, friend or foe, dogs and deer. Oh, how he loved and doctored and cared for his dogs! And yes, this same love, care and concern he also showed to us all---family, friends, neighbors, strangers, man, woman, boy and girl; black, white, yellow and brown; giving to charities and causes here and around the world. He laughed, loved, joked and played with and tricks on his family and friends. Brother Curtis doted on his nieces, Little Eva and Maria, and they loved, respected and doted on their Uncle 'Dirty Bill.' Amid much pain and sickness, sorrow and loss, Curtis endured and lived life to the fullest---loving, obeying, and serving Eternal Father God and bring a blessing to humanity. Well done good and faithful servant. Now brother Curtis, may you enter into His eternal rest. Surely, your REWARD will follow after you. Hallelujah! Amen.

“ Sending prayers for the family during this time of bereavement. Encouraging you to trust in the Lord and He will surely be with you. "Dirty Bill" as he was known to many, was such a kind and loving person. He always had a smile and showed concern for family and friends. He was indeed a gentleman and will be missed. I know he is at peace and has joined up with his softball team members, The Charles City Raiders, led by Coach OJune Bailey. 🏆 🧢 🎯
