“ Uncle Otis you will be missed. I have so many memories of all the wonderful things you have done for me. There are many but one would be the time you baked me a cake in the shape of the number one after I returned home from Army Basic Training. I felt special because you had on it, "Welcome Home Private, You're #1." I could go on and on about your goodness because you were an AWESOME Uncle. Gone but never forgotten and always loved. Rest in Heaven, you have surely earned your wings.

I remember the last family reunion. It was on my birthday the year Shalita was born. Uncle Otis was so funny. Uncle Otis took a lot of pictures and movies of all families. He always made cakes for all occasions. When my father died Uncle Otis was a father to me. Uncle Otis and Aunt Lucille did a lot for of us . He would sing Happy birthday to me. I remember when Shalita was little Uncle Otis holding her hands while Shalita was standing. Uncle Otis you will be missed dearly and I love you always.

“ I will always remember Uncle Otis as my other “Dad”. When my dad passed ,Uncle Otis became my dad. Uncle Otis was just a “Perfect” person. The most caring and giving person in this world! I remember when I was little I always knew I would get a birthday cake and a present and a card for my birthday. The card always had money in it for whatever age we I was. I remember thinking I was a millionaire when I got those cards. I remember the Easter egg hunts ...all the jokes he told. He was a comedian and I remember Aunt Cille know cracking a smile when he told his jokes and everyone knew she wanted to laugh. I also remember as a little girl Mommy would plait my hair into 100 plaits which I hated and Uncle Otis would ask me... is it true that blondes have more fun? Lol. Uncle Otis it is so wonderful when a person can pass and there is not one bad thing at all anyone can say about that person. Uncle Otis I will miss you dearly and I love you!

“ I remember Otis very well when I was just a little fella. I remember him from his shop at Layfields lumber Co fixing everything that they could break up! The shop was always full of projects all over the place! I also remember the big wood stove in there and some of the stories that were passed around ! I wish that I could have visited him in his older years, but couldn't because I trucked up till just a couple years ago. I feel bad about that because I had some stories from truckin' that I would liked to have told around that old wood stove! He lived a good long life and I am sure he was tired and also ready.

My condolences to the family and friends as well.

“ Where do I begin. I have been calling you Papa since I could talk. There are so many memories that I will cherish forever. You never forgot our birthdays and we could always count on those tunes from you and GG. Who else can say they got Easter baskets from their Grandparents until they were in their 30's!!! Every time I hear a Tongue Twister I will think of you and how you use to always get us to say them. You will be missed and I will love you forever Papa ❤️
