“ I last saw Isaline in 2019 at Crab Carnival. She was as sweet and dear as she was back when she and my sister Thea were friends in high school. She was always a kind and joyful person. Condolences to her family.

“ My time, as neighbor and friend to Isaline, are some of my best memories. She was a fun companion in mischief and was always ready for an adventure. I will miss her smile and OUR SPOT at the fence where we would share our day. Williamsburg will not be the same without her.

“ Paige and I were on the Jamestown Presbyterian Church Session together and her warmth and knowledge inspired me. Her “can do” spirit which she appears to have instilled on the family, was refreshing. She cared about honoring the elders of the church with her warmth. She is missed. My prayers are with you.

“ First I need to thank Isaline for helping me create memories of the good ole days when things were much easlier, simple, and of course FUN.. who in their right mind could ever think about leaving out the FUN part of growing up in West Point ! Now I want to express to the family of this newly born Angel Isaline ... my families deepest sympathy because we were all family in the long run and share so many experiences together throughout the years. The time on this earth is only temporary. But the gates to our eternal home is a very comforting closure for a well lived life ! Fly high Isaline .. YOU EARNED IT !
