

Patricia Chandler

April 12, 2011

Patricia C. Chandler, 70, of Williamsburg, Va. passed away on April 12, 2011. A lifelong Peninsula resident, she graduated from James Blair High School in 1959 and The Pan American Business School with honors, and she was crowned March of Dimes Queen, Williamsburg, 1959. She retired as an accomplished secretary with The Dept. of the Army Civil Service Div., Ft. Eustis and Ft. Monroe, Langley Air Force Base, York County Public Schools, The National Center for State Courts and Reynolds Metals. She was a frequent volunteer until 1989 in numerous school, community and church activities. Survivors include three children, Lynn Chandler-Coursen, Kara Chandler and Thomas Chandler, Jr., all of Williamsburg; three sisters, Gene Noblin, Kay Tarrant and Mickie Sciegaj, all of Williamsburg; two brothers, Steve Campbell of Lanexa and Ron Campbell of Check, Va.; three grandchildren, Bryce James, Brian Shall and Taylor James, all of Williamsburg, and a host of neices, nephews, and special friends. She was preceded in death by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Campbell, and a brother, William 'Butch' Campbell, all of Williamsburg. A service will be held at St. Stephen Lutheran Church, 612 Jamestown Rd., Williamsburg, Va., on Saturday, April 16, 2011 at 11 am.