

Patricia Winona Stewart

May 13, 1945 - January 26, 2024

Patricia “Patsy” Winona Stewart, 78, of Providence Forge, VA, received her eternal healing as she entered the heavenly gates on Friday, January 26, 2024. Patsy was preceded in death by her parents, Andrew and Bessie Whitehead, son Wade Stewart, and siblings Leland, Maury, Andrew, and Leon Whitehead.

Patsy is survived by her loving husband of nearly 60 years, Louis Stewart; sons Corey (Bobbie), Jon (Tanya), Ross (Jessica); grandchildren Jessica, Caylin, Christian, Keenan, Lawson, and Harper; one sister Anne Holmes (Michael), brothers, Robert (Rita) and Terry Whitehead (Eunice); sister-in-law Irese Whitehead; brothers-in-law Clifford (Bertha) and Julian Stewart (Becky); sister-in-law Dottie Cannada; and a host of cousins, nieces, and nephews.

As a loving and faithful servant, Patsy was a light for Jesus Christ every day. She accepted Christ at an early age, and quickly began serving the Lord in various church ministries. She poured into the hearts of children as a Sunday School teacher, a leader of the Sunshine group, a Vacation Bible School teacher, and provided the Children’s Church sermon during the worship service on Sunday mornings. Patsy honored the Lord as a Deacon of Samaria Baptist Church, encouraging the members of the congregation with their spiritual walks with Christ, and caring for others through the hospital visitation ministry. She also represented the church as a member of the Women’s Missionary Union (WMU). Most notably, she was well-known for her recitation of the Christmas story from the gospel of Luke each year during the holiday season.

Patsy was a proud citizen of the Chickahominy Indian Tribe. She volunteered in many capacities such as Elders Day at the Tribal Center and attended the Pow-Wow each year. She was even crowned Miss Chickahominy during her early years.

Patsy served on the board of Social Services for Charles City County for several years and was a member of Woodmen of the World. She loved reading, working her crossword puzzles in the newspaper, taking pictures, especially of her son's wildlife harvests, baking delicious rolls and pies, and tending to her gorgeous flowers in her yard. She loved to enter her baked goods and flowers into the Charles City County Fair each year, winning numerous blue ribbons.

Patsy faithfully served her family by caring for the home, supporting her husband, and raising four boys who all came to know and love the Lord. She was both compassionate and patient as a caregiver for her mom and dad during their illnesses in their later years.

Patsy will be remembered as a true example of living by faith, sharing the Good News with those she encountered, and as a beautiful, classy woman who always had a vibrant smile on her face and kind word to share.

A funeral service will be held at 2 p.m. on Thursday, February 1, 2024, at Samaria Baptist Church, 8130 Lott Cary Road, Providence Forge, VA 23140. A viewing will take place from 5 p.m. – 8 p.m. on Wednesday, January 31, 2024, at Vincent Funeral Home, 9923 Pocahontas Trail, Providence Forge, VA 23140. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Samaria Baptist Church, the Chickahominy Indian Tribe, and/or the Alzheimer's Association.

“Patricia Stewart was a lovely and kind Christian lady who gave so much of herself, not only to her family, but also to her friends. She became known to me in April of 1969 when both she and I gave birth to a baby--she a son, and I a daughter. We became good hospital buddies at this time. In April of 2012, she wrote a kind and meaningful message on the internet when my first husband died. Shortly thereafter, we renewed our contact, and she brought her nice family to visit me at my home in Deltaville. At this time, our "babies" met each other as young adults for the first time. When I later remarried, she and Louis gave their good wishes to me and my husband, Howard Reisinger. Patricia and Louis Stewart are among the finest people Howard and I have ever met. Patricia will remain in our hearts forever.

Our deepest sympathy goes out to Patricia's family, especially to Louis, who was such a kind and devoted husband. We plan to keep Louis among our most cherished friends and to see him over many more years.

God's peace to you, Louis, and to your family at this sad time.

“ To Louis and the family we are sorry for your loss. Patsy was such a beautiful lady inside and out and she already has been greatly missed. We were always so happy to see her with her warm welcome and with the most beautiful smile. God has received one of the best. We are sending our prayers and condolences to you all with our love.
