

Paul "Noodles" Smolich Jr.

October 5, 1958 - December 13, 2020

Paul Joseph "Noodles" Smolich, Jr., 62, of Plainview, VA passed away at home on December 13th, surrounded by loved ones. Noodles was the owner and operator of Noodles Junk Yard for many years. He was a man who lived his life loving both Jesus and his family exceptionally well. Noodles was endlessly generous, kindhearted and hardworking, never shying away from whatever it took to get the job done. He battled cancer courageously for over a year, but he fought the good fight, he finished the race, and he kept the faith. Noodles was preceded in death by his parents, Paul and Diane Smolich and Ike and Evelyn Addington; and his beloved grandfather, Herbert L. Dixon. He is survived by his wife of 20 years, Laura; his children, Sheena, P.J. (Chrissy), Michael, Michelle (Eddie), Brittany and Shane; ten grandchildren; siblings, Debbie (Tom), Rhonda (Franklin), and Keith (Donna); several nieces and nephews that loved him dearly; and countless devoted friends that stuck by his side through thick and thin.

The funeral home will be open from 12 to 5 pm, Thursday, December 17th if anyone would like to stop by and sign the register book. A funeral service will be held 11 a.m., Friday, December 18th at Vincent Funeral Home, 417 11th Street, West Point, VA 23181 with burial following in Shackelfords Chapel United Methodist Church Cemetery, Shackelfords, VA. Please observe all necessary Covid-19 precautions and be aware that seating will be limited.

“ We are so sorry and our heartfelt sympathy goes out to the family of Noodles. We called on him many times for parts for equipment and if anything we had was breaking down, you could be assured he would be assured he would try and help us fix it. He was very well loved and we'll all miss him.

“ To family of Paul Noodles Smolich Jr. Paul was good and kind hearted friend. When we were in school together, I never heard Paul say anything bad about know one. I know that Paul loved his grandfather!! John 14:3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. Your Friend

“ Noodles was one of the finest man I have had the pleasure of calling a friend, a man full of wisdom and love for the Lord. One of the sayings he had that I will always remember was, " When you feel like talking about someone, jusy pray for them", he will be missed by many “ Noodles was one of the best friends I've ever had. He was like a brother to me! I'm thankful we did get to talk and say our good byes until we meet again. Go rest high on that mountain by dear friend. My thoughts and prayers are with the family during this difficult time, if you should need my help for anything don't hesitate to give me a call.

Take care,
