“ We are so sorry for Phyllis' passing, but happy for her in Heaven...Walter will never forget the fun times he had going bowling with her in Williamsburg...We will always remember her beautiful smile and laughter...We are forever grateful to Darlene for introducing us to Phyllis years ago when we were new to the area, and for them making us feel very welcome and at home. With love and prayers, Kim and Walter Jones, Chester, VA

“ Good memories of Phyllis from my childhood. Still have the pretty pitcher she gave as a wedding present. Her sister Betty Sue was in my wedding at Buckroe Baptist Church. Those were the days- beach, sun and fun.
