

Rebecca Dean Carson Torrence

September 17, 1949 - October 7, 2024

Rebecca “Becky” Carson Torrence, 75, of Henrico, Va went to be with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on October 7, 2024, she is preceded in death by her parents, Burton and Nadine Carson and her daughter Stephanie Jean Torrence. Becky leaves to cherish her memory her husband of 56 years, Rev. C. David Torrence Jr.; Daughter, Sherri Chaney (Tim); Sons, Charles “Burt” Torrence (Sarah) and David “Gene” Torrence (Heather); Grandchildren, Alexandra and Christina Chaney, Shae, Steele, Kye, Brooklyn, and Ezra Torrence; Stephanie Torrence (Skylar), Kirsten Palfrey (Jake), Grayson and Kaymeron Torrence; Great Granddaughter, Oakley Palfrey.

Born September 17, 1949, in Lynchburg, Va. She attended Appomattox County High School and went on to further her education at Ferrum College. Afterwards she then embarked on the role as wife to David that she cherished for 56 years, a mother to 4 children, a grandma to 11 grandchildren, and last but not least a great grandma to one great granddaughter. This brought so much laughter and most importantly joy.

Becky worked at JLARC and the General Assembly for 20 years where she retired. Not only did she work a full-time job but was a wife of a Pastor. She made many friends over the years that turned into family she could count on. Church activities always kept her very busy.

Above all, her greatest joy came from spending time with her family and making sure she was able to be at all her children and grandchildren's special events. Some of her joys were spending time tanning on the beach, watching General Hospital, and tending to flowers in the yard. She loved her family and friends. Becky was a wonderful Wife, Mother, Grandma, and Great Grandma and will be leaving a legacy of love and dedication that will be felt forever.

“ To David and the entire Torrence Family. Becky was a special person who lived her faith every minute of everyday. She showed her love and compassion for everyone she met. She was a friend to our entire community. Our families became very close and I came to know Rev. David and Becky as close friends and family. God has been blessed with her work here with us and now with her presence in heaven. God bless the family, and friends and may his mercy and comfort ease their pain during these tough times.

Love always
