

Richard Woodruff

June 12, 1925 - July 15, 2012

Richard Conde Woodruff, age 87, passed away on Sunday, July 15, 2012, with his devoted family at his side at The Chesapeake in Newport News. Dick was born in Montclair, New Jersey. In 1943 he left high school to enlist in the U. S. Army Air Force during World War II. After the war he completed high school and attended Mohawk College in Utica, New York. In 1950 he graduated from Babson College in Wellesley, Massachusetts with a degree in Business Management. In 1954 he and his loving wife, Peggy, moved to California where they lived for over 40 years. Dick retired from his position as a manager of estimating with General Dynamics, Pomona after 32 years. They retired to Santa Rosa, California, before moving to Virginia in 1996. Dick lived a life that exemplified his devotion to God and family and service to others. He was an Elder in his church, a Boy Scout Troop leader, Home Owner Association President, and sponsored students in the Junior Achievement program. He was an exceptionally gifted handyman who could fix anything and was at his happiest working on projects to help others. He is survived by his wife, Peggy; his daughter Iris Redmond and her husband John; grandchildren Jennifer and Russell Redmond; and many, many friends. Everyone who knew him will miss his sweet smile and patient nature. A celebration of life service will be held 2 pm. Thursday, July 19th at Stone House Presbyterian Church, 9401 Fieldstone Parkway, Toano, VA 23168. Burial will be private. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests memorial contribution be made to the National Parkinson Foundation (www.parkinson.or
